IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HENRIETTE SAKAI

MR. AIJIRO FUJIMOTO

No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main...any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

John Donne

We dedicate Forward 1970 to our former Principal:

Dear Students of St. Joseph College,

My preference is to write, "Dear Young Men of tomorrow," instead of the above salutation because more than being men of SJC, you will truly be the young men of tomorrow. Yet I am sure you will always have a nostalgic regard for your Alma Mater as is so well evidenced by our many local and worldwide Alumni and Alumnae over the years. Believe me, your teachers are happy to help you in every way possible to become the SJC men of tomorrow.

Why this emphasis on the world of tomorrow? History is in the making at this epochal time. Look at what has happened just within your own short span of life. Man has landed on the moon; the jumbo jets are already en route; human hearts have been transplanted; the momentous Second Council of the Vatican has been held; many new nations have been formed; Expo 70 is in the making; youth is on the march ... let alone to say this is the nuclear age. Such is the world you are preparing yourselves for now.

What a thrilling challenge! for you. Truly, your Parents and Teachers envy you. Though the world of tomorrow, however, will be much more affluent in wealth and knowledge and other ways, nevertheless it may be just that more sinister because of its growing insistence more and more on relevancy in today's walks of life morally and otherwise.

The wise student, therefore, like a prudent pilot or captain, is one who takes stock of his bearings, judges his situation thoroughly, studies himself and his limitations and takes advantage to ready himself for the things ahead. That's what your Alma Mater wants to do for you. But only you can do it.

Young men, do not forget Shakespeare's dictum: "To thine ownself be true." Know what you are about and use your opportunities well, that when your time comes, others may see in you the REAL SJC MEN who contributed their part to their fellow-men in a changing and challenging world and helped to make it a richer and better place in which to live.

BROTHER JAMES MASUR S. M.

When I disembarked from a trans-Pacific ship at Yokohama in the fall of 1953, I had little idea of what lay ahead of me here. Japan was a place I'd studied very little about in geography classes sometime in the distant past and had read newspaper accounts of but never really understood; Japanese was a language I'd just heard a few words of on the way across the ocean; St. Joseph College was the name of the school to which I'd been assigned—but I had no idea what kind of school it might be. I was a stranger coming into a strange place.

The passing years have changed many things. True, I can't look back on the many decades of change that Bro. Albert or others on the SJC Faculty can remember; but, I've gotten to know Japan and I've seen some of its sights; I'll never master Japanese, but I can at least limp along in a conversation; Yokohama might not know me so well, but I wouldn't mind being considered an adopted "Hama-kko"; SJC has become my home.

Japan has, almost amazingly, emerged from the post-War image it had, into the nation of the new decade, the host of EXPO '70, the land of the future. SJC, too, has grown and developed. SJC, too, looks ahead into the future!

Next year, 1971, will see SJC celebrating its seventieth birthday. It was in September, 1901, —Meiji 34—that St. Joseph College opened its doors at No. 43 Bluff, Yokohama, the first international school for boys in Japan, with eighty students representing about a dozen different countries. The Faculty of Marianists was about half French and half American. The ideals and purposes of that 1901 SJC may have been expressed in words that would be considered archaic today—but they were basic and they were valid. They are the same today.

SJC grew and prospered; endured difficulties and tragedies; rebuilt and restored; progressed and developed. The motto "FORWARD WITH FAITH AND FORTITUDE" was chosen early in the school's history and has been the keynote of its life as a school and a family.

Faith and Fortitude were needed in the earliest days when SJC searched for a permanent home. Faith and Fortitude, and nothing less, could have sustained SJC after the great Kanto Earthquake of 1923 and through the years of rebuilding. The men of SJC, students and faculty, found strength in Faith and Fortitude as the clouds of World War II gathered; and lived on little else but that Faith and Fortitude through the darkest days of the War. Faith and Fortitude enabled SJC to restore with confidence in the future during the post-War era. With the same Faith and Fortitude SJC moved into the world of modern international Japan.

The decade of the '70s is opening up to the SJC family new and challenging opportunities to move FORWARD WITH FAITH AND FORTITUDE. And WE are that SJC family—administration, faculty, alumni, students from first grade to twelfth grade!

GRADUATES '70

STEPHEN C. BETTENCOURT

Nationality: American

Stephen was the most humorous member of the class. His jokes were rated A-1 and every word he uttered brightened the class. We all appreciated Stephen for his spiritual aid. Whatever he undertakes his optimistic quality will surely bring him success.

Stephen Bettencourt

RICHARD EMERY

Nationality: American

Richard came to SJC from Monterey, California, and brought with him some of that 'California Sunshine'. He was often found occupying himself with his intense love of the sea. He hopes to make the navy his career. Richard involved himself deeply with his studies and was quite school minded during school hours.

Richard Emery

JAMES SHINICHI HAYASHI

Nationality: Japanese

James, the editor of the Forward, is a comical but serious person. Dependable and loyal, he captured the faith of the entire class in various activities, which gave him the position as captain of the school's soccer team. Although busy, he was still able to spend some time on personal interests as drawing, fishing, and strumming his guitar.

James Hayashi

CHI PIAO HSU

Nationality: Chinese

"Donovan" was a versatile sportsman. He played not only soccer but also basketball, softball and pingpong. As in study he displayed a great deal of seriousness in his play. Yet when time called for relaxation, we found him carefree and humorous, cheering his classmates in depressing moments. Let's wish the best of luck to our "Bellet GT" driver from Shanghai, Hsu Chi Piao.

Hsu C. Piao

YU HWONG
Nationality: Chinese

Yu, a morally stalwart individual, drew a deep and sincere respect from the class. He was known for his serious and responsible actions in and out of school. Because of his stolid qualities and firm allegiance to his class he held offices in different school activities. They included the Forward, Interact Club, Student Council, and many other minor activities.

Yu Hwong.

BEN HIROYUKI KIMIZUKA
Nationality: Japanese

Ben was one of the guitar members of the class, leaving the arguing to everyone else. Before attending St. Joe he went to an international school where he mastered English. He plans to become an engineer and work for a large company.

Hiroyuki Kimizuka.

SHINJI KURODA
Nationality: Japanese

Shinji attended SJC for 12 years. During these years his gentle personality enabled him to obtain countless number of friends. In the field of sports, his athletic ability made him one of the best players on the soccer team. After graduation he plans to attend Sophia University where he will study Business Management.

Shinji Kuroda

CHARLES SIEW LENG LEONG
Nationality: Malaysian

Charles shone within our class in spite of his smallness in size. Acting as captain of the Tennis team he brought the sport into the school spotlight. Other than that, he was usually found in school, working on projects ranging from Interact meetings to class assignments. Endurance and loyalty made him a success and a friend of all.

Charles Leong

LEROY WILLIAM LOCKWOOD

Nationality: American

Leroy assumed the role as the spiritual promoter for the class and for the school. He was appointed the Spiritual committee Chairman in the Student Council and the Sodality Prefect. He also acted as a reserve helper for any other activities in need. Because of this awareness he served as an ideal St. Joseph student.

Leroy W. Lockwood

BENJAMIN CHIA-MING LOO

Nationality: Chinese

Benny was one of the most popular members of the class. Not only was he popular among the boys, but, among the girls as well! Hardly a day passed without a word or two spoken about Benny. He made every dance the place to be. Dressed in a groovy pantalon suit, he came driving his cool silver gray Skyline. He made the scene wherever he went! But his popularity springs not from his outward appearance but from his friendly, amiable character which seems to enchant everyone he encounters. Says Benny, "Love is all you need."

Benjamin Loo

JOSE PABLO MARTINEZ

Nationality: Filipino

Jojo was one of the short timers in St. Joseph with a record of three years. His interest varied greatly from sports to fashion and from dating to studying. Before anything else was his obligation to his Social Committee, Joe worked hard in promoting better and more enjoyable social activities throughout the year. Both the class and school will always remember Jojo for his sincere and worthy co-operation.

Jose Martinez

JUN MATSUNO

Nationality: Japanese

Jun was one of the dominant figures in the class due to his age and experience. He led the class through crisis and fullheartedly supported its causes whenever a need existed. Concerned with the reputation of SJC through the Senior class he contributed vigorous drives for the improvement. This was seen in his captaincy of the basket-ball and Judo team in which progression was evident. Jun also believed in the honor and respect of men.

Jun Matsuno

JOHN HIROMI MIYAHARA

Nationality: Japanese

John was probably the most reserved student in the class. He is a man of action rather than words. Taking part in most of the intramural programs, he has helped the class in achieving its victories. As he loves solitude he spends his free time listening to records, playing guitar and occasionally surfing by the shores of Chigasaki. John plans to study business in college.

John Miyahara

DOUGLAS McCARNS

Nationality: American

Doug came to St. Joseph in his junior year and was at first a true alien in Yokohama. But his friendly and easy going manner quickly turned the city into a new hometown. The school thus became an important aspect of his life in Japan where he freely donated his time and effort for its goals. He was one of the individuals to whom the class of '70 owed much in accomplishing the Senior projects

Douglas M'Carne

KIM RICHARD MORRIS
Nationality: American

Kim spent his year striving for temporal perfection. Although only attending SJC for one year, he made a firm impression on all of his classmates. His outspokenness on many subjects won him a certain admiration. Kim's interests are varied, and he tries to do his best in each.

Kim R. Morris

RAYMOND ICHIRO NAGAI
Nationality: American

Raymond is a man of few words. His independent, resolute mind makes his words meaningful. His main interest is art. In the past his art work has aided the class in many of its projects such as the Chronicle and talent shows. To our future Michaelangelo we say 'Bon Voyage'.

Ray I. Nagai

LLOYD TOSHIO NISHIDA
Nationality: America

Lloyd, our enthusiastic musician, hails from Hawaii. A proficient drummer, he digs Al Kooper and modern jazz. Besides music his interest lies in the field of sports. He was found everyday on the soccer field making daring goals. Lloyd is an optimistic person with a bright future.

Lloyd Nishida

TSUNG CHUAN OU
Nationality: Chinese

Ou acted as a catalyst of most of the humorous events in class. His originality in action made him a most notable person. But in spite of his easy going manner, Ou reflected a sense of seriousness and responsibility. He was one of our star soccer players and a great talent behind the drums.

Tsung C. Ou

LEONARDO M. RITCHIE

Nationality: Portuguese

The fellow playing the guitar is Leonardo. Being one of the outstanding musicians in the class he has mastered both lead and bass guitar. His trustworthy nature made him class treasurer for the past four years. His friendliness caused him to be a leader in his Senior Scout troop. Leo is looking forward to a career concerned with automobiles.

Leonardo M. Ritchie

HARUYASU EDWARD SHINODA

Nationality: Japanese

Almost every Honor roll notice since fall of 1958 has been graced by the name Edward Shinoda. A very hard worker, Eddy was active in many activities, ranging from Judo to the School Annual. He was the president of the Interact Club and Chairman of the Welfare Committee. He seeks his future in the field of engineering where he would fully employ his mathematic abilities.

Haruyasu Shinoda

KIEN-HWA SIEN
Nationality: Chinese

Sien was the nice guy of the class. Never in a quarrel and always helpful, he strived to make his final year a success, academically and spiritually. Perhaps the most outstanding trait exhibited by Kien-Hwa was his traditional Chinese manners of being conservative and polite.

Kien-Hwa Sien

JAMES MINORU TAKEUCHI
Nationality: American

Although he is an American citizen, Jimmy portrays a stronger image of a Japanese. At home he wears a Yukata and eats 'Tanuki soba'. JT has served the class as president several times and his scholastic record was outstanding. His time was fully devoted to the school and his classmates.

James Takeuchi

THOMAS K. TIE
Nationality: Chinese

Hailing from sunny Okinawa, Seibo proved to be one of the class' most valuable assets. Although active in sports, his real self came through in his guitar playing. Tom plans a career in engineering and probably the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

Thomas K. Tie

THOMAS MICHAEL TIERNEY
Nationality: American

"I'm so glad, I'm so glad," Tommy wails as he 'jonks' his guitar. A music lover, he is firmly dedicated to his playing. In his Junior year he was the editor of the Chronicle and drove his co-workers to producing the finest paper in SJC history.

Thomas M. Tierney.

GEORGE SHUJI UOTILA

Nationality: Finnish

George never said a word in class unless he was dissatisfied with it's conduct in which he voiced his opinion verbally without talking. But his presence was enough to give him attention. George was the biggest guy in class but not a brute. Kind and timid, he was always popular with both the high school and grade school students.

George Uotila

FRANCIS W. WERTHEIMBER

Nationality: Japanese

This man has a quiet temperament and there is always an aura of nonchalance about him. Once out of school he changes completely. When he arrives home he races into his room, returning dressed in tight blue jeans and a short denim jacket with a flashy helmet under his arm. He rushes to his Harley Davidson and zooms onto the highway, seeking speed and adventure...an "easy rider" indeed.

Francis Wertheimber

JOHN YAMAZAKI
Nationality: Japanese

Johnny's interest in life seemed to be dominated by two things: music and philosophy. The two, of course, took the modern concept for sources. Therefore, Johnny was often heard quoting a phrase from philosophy or behind a piano doing his thing, if not, raising questions in his Religion and History classes.

John Yamazaki

RICHARD LEO YOUNG
Nationality: American

Every winter Rich is found frolicking on the slopes of Shiga. An avid skier, he takes part in amateur competition throughout Japan. Rich previously attended St. Mary's in Tokyo, and is thus no stranger to Japan and her customs.

Richard L. Young

Matthew Zalewski Jr.

MATTHEW PAUL ZALEWSKI

Nationality: American

Matthew is a possessor of splendid talents in almost every sphere of interest. During his four years of high-school, he has proven himself to be a creative guitarist, a skillful soccer player, a consecutive honor roll student, an able leader of the class, and a sincere lover of nature and humanity. Matthew was also noted as one of the class' top-ranking Mah Jong player. This is probably due to his systematic and analytic mind. When asked how he feels being Matthew Zalewski Jr., he meekly replied, "Groovy."

Predictions

June 7, 1980

"Hey, did you see today's paper? It says here that Steve Bettencourt was appointed Chief Quartermaster of the U.S. Army. Wasn't he in our Class of '70?"

"Yea, but look at Emery. Seaman to Admiral in only ten years is really fantastic. Speaking of old classmates, I saw Hayashi the other day. He's an Industrial Designer with Suzuoto Chicken."

"Did you know that Hsu Chi Piao's Hotel Chain is opening another in Las Vegas? It'll be the first hotel in Vegas with Ofuro. Look here on page two. Dr. Hwong Yu of Taiwan's Medical Research has found a lead to the cure of Chinese Mumps."

"Ben Kimizuka is married and working for Standard Oil of Venezuela. Shinji Kuroda is a successful businessman with accounts from meat companies and Chinese Restaurants. Leroy... Father Leroy rather is now in Kinkanja converting the natives to Sodality. Leong is the new Malaysian Ambassador to the Philippines."

"Loo is now a teacher at our old Alma Mater SJC. Jojo's wife gave birth to the world's first set of nontuplets... for the second consecutive time. Jun Matsuno has started his own settlement in Abashiri. They follow Bushido and the other old Japanese institutions."

"Hey, how about that fellow, Doug?"

"McCarns is a professional wrestler; he's billed as 'Iron Mouth.' He is running for President next year. But look at Miyahara; he's found true happiness. A prospering business in Fujisawa, the Riviera of Japan."

"Kim started the second Brookfarm in Georgetown. A true philosopher, he. But he never would have made it without Nagai. Ichiro is the real mastermind. I hear he's gone back to bartending."

"Nishida is bald already! I saw his picture in the Rotary Club News. He's the Regional President of the Pacific Area excluding Fujisawa. Ou is a famous hairstylist in Paris. He does all the movie stars at Toei's office there. Leo Ritchie rode the winners at the Kentucky Derby and the Three Year Finals. He's really a great jock."

"Good old Smiley Shinoda. Remember how he was Interact President at school? Well, he's right at home working at the Kanagawa Automobile Test Center for 50 cc motorcycle. Sien's an up-and-coming singer. He quit his high paying job as an engineer to do what he really wanted; bring happiness to those who sorely need it... the poor in spirit."

"Takeuchi, remember Jimmy? He manages those Tanuki Soba Restaurants in Moscow, Idaho. He's the only one who uses real Tanuki."

"Speaking of Tanuki, Thomas Tie is an inmate in a National Penitentiary. Five to ten years for singin' in the shower... in a YWCA. But he's not as bad off as Tierney. He's a professional dancer in Uotilla's night club; The Golden Pig. You know the place... where everyone wears farm clothes and calls hogs... 'Tuuuuuuuo, tuuuuuuo.'"

"Wertheimer finally perfected the multi-refractional camera. You have seen the article about it in Young's magazine... 'Friendly's Friendship Corner'. FFC is always great on those educational subjects. Did you know that the famous fashion shop 'Yamazal' is run by our old friends Zalewski and Yamazaki? They specialize in custom-made red handkerchiefs..."

"By the way, don't you think we should be getting in now?"

"Yes, you're right. You know how angry Dr. Philips gets when we stay out in the sun too long."

"O. K. I'll beat you home, look at me, I'm an airplane. Dadadadadada-dadada-dadada."

"There goes Napoleon after Caesar. Tralalalalalalalala."

"Gosh, this jacket is tight! I'm sleepy, sigh."

"Good night!!"
